Office of Legislative Counsel

21 DEC 1976

Honorable Jacob K. Javits
United States Senate
Washington, D. C. 20510

Dear Senator Javits:

This is in response to your 7 December 1976 referral of a 16 November 1976 letter to you from Mr. Henry S. Lowendorf of Ithaca, New York, concerning various acts against Cuban nationals and mentioning particularly the destruction of a Cuban Airlines plane near Barbados on 6 October 1976.

We note that Mr. Lowendorf refers to a letter of 24 October 1976 to you concerning terrorism committed against Cuba, which this Agency did not receive.

I wish to assure you that the CIA is not involved in any kind of terrorist attacks and is not giving money or supporting in any other way people and groups who are claiming responsibility for such attacks.

I also wish to assure you that CIA was not involved in the crash of the Cuban Airlines plane off Barbados in early October.

Please note that this Agency regularly advises the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence on allegations made about CIA activity. You may wish to be in touch with the Committee as well.

I hope that this letter is responsive to your inquiry.

Sincerely,

George L. Cary
Legislative Counsel

Senator Jacob Javits

Dear Senator Javits:

I recently wrote you (October 24, 1976) concerning terrorism committed against Cuba, but you replied (November 11) in a letter with a speech against a terrorist attack at Istanbul Airport.

My initial letter lists a number of bombings, kidnappings, and attacks against Cuban nationals, as well as third parties in the case of the destruction of 78 lives in a Cuba Airlines plane leaving Barbados, October 6, 1976.

The responsibility for these terrorist attacks has been admitted by people and groups who are given our tax money through the C.I.A..

I fully appreciate the stand you have taken against terrorism when it is committed by foreign organizations, and now I ask you to follow through concerning these outrageous examples of U.S. instigated terrorism and condemn them.

I again urge you to ask Senator Daniel Inouye, Chairman of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, to conduct immediate public investigations into these terrorist acts committed in the name of the people of the United States, and to support criminal prosecution of the officials responsible.

May I ask you to reply to the points I raised here and in my first letter to you?

Sincerely,

Henry S. Lowendorf
